ANNOUNCEMENT IN RELATION TO THE PROVISION FOR IMPAIRMENT ON ASSETS FOR 2025 OF CHINA COMMUNICATIONS CONSTRUCTION COMPANY LIMITED

The board of directors (the “Board”) and all directors of China Communications Construction Company Limited (the “Company”) guarantee that there are no false representations and misleading statements contained in, or material omissions from, the contents of this announcement, and accept legal responsibility for the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the contents hereof.

On 30 March 2026, the Company held the third meeting of the sixth session of the Board, at which the Proposal on the Company’s Plan of Provision for Impairment on Assets for 2025 was considered and approved. The relevant matters are set out as follows:

I. SUMMARY OF PROVISION FOR IMPAIRMENT

In order to objectively and fairly reflect the Company’s operating results and financial position for 2025, based on the prudence principle, and in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and the Company’s accounting policies, the Company performed impairment testing on all assets within the scope of consolidation, and made impairment provision on assets with impairment indicators based on the results of such testing. In 2025, the Company has made a total provision for impairment of RMB9,379 million, accounting for 0.48% of its average total assets for the year. This ratio falls within a reasonable range as compared to that for the past five years. Details are set out below:

(I) Provision for Impairment on Receivables

In 2025, based on information such as risk characteristics, nature of customers and aging structure of receivables as at the end of the year, the Company made the provision for impairment of RMB7,192 million after assessing the recoverable amounts.

(II) Provision for Impairment on Contract Assets

In 2025, based on the customers’ credit profiles of the Company’s contract assets (including the portion with a maturity of over one year) as at the end of the year and the forecast of future economic conditions, the Company assessed the expected credit losses and made the provision for impairment of RMB667 million.

(III) Provision for Impairment on Inventories

In 2025, the Company made the provision for impairment of RMB1,087 million in respect of inventories, including real estate projects, for which the cost exceeded the net realisable value.

(IV) Provision for Impairment on Other Assets

In 2025, the Company made the provision for impairment of RMB433 million in respect of other assets, including fixed assets.

II. IMPACT ON FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE COMPANY FROM THE PROVISION FOR IMPAIRMENT

In 2025, the provision for impairment made by the Company resulted in an increase of RMB9,379 million in credit impairment losses and asset impairment losses in the consolidated financial statements, with a corresponding decrease of RMB9,379 million in total profit.

III. OPINIONS OF THE AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE

The Audit and Risk Committee of the Company has considered and approved the Proposal on the Company's Plan of Provision for Impairment on Assets for 2025 prior to the convening of the Board meeting, and agreed to submit the same to the Board for consideration.

IV. OPINIONS OF THE BOARD

The Board is of the opinion that the Company's provision for impairment is based on its accounting policies, accounting estimates, relevant internal control systems, and the actual condition of its assets, and the basis for the provision is sufficient and fairly reflects the Company's asset status. Accordingly, the Board has approved the provision for impairment on assets amounting to RMB9,379 million for 2025.

Announcement is hereby given.
